Brad Nieder, MD, CSP

1.0 CE Credit

Dr. Brad Nieder's signature keynote is funny! The healthcare humor will tickle your funny bone and have you laughing. "The Healthy Humorist" has been known to skewer such topics as healthcare lingo, diet plans, pharmaceutical ads, medical marijuana, and scrubs. He's even been known to break into song! It's also educational. You'll laugh as you learn why laughter really is good medicine for combating stress, feeling better and living longer. Dr. Brad always dispenses some wellness advice in an entertaining manner unlike any other doctor you've encountered.

7:00pm - 8:00pm

Awards Ceremony

10:00am - 10:30am	Vendor Presentation Break Check out our Vendor Links on the Conference Website
10:30am - 12:00pm	"Enhancing the Capacity of School Nurses and Practitioners to Reduce Excessive Anxiety in Children: The CALM Study" Golda Ginsburg, Ph.D. Principal Investigator of the CALM Study UConn School of Medicine – Department of Psychiatry 1.5 CE Credits Excessive anxiety among elementary age students is common and severely impacts academic, social, and behavioral functioning. Less than half of children with anxiety receive the services they need to succeed in school. There is a critical need to expand the providers who can assist students with anxiety and address this obstacle to academic success. School nurses and practitioners may lack training in evidenced-based anxiety reduction interventions. The CALM study is funded to train school nurses and practitioners in brief interventions to reduce student anxiety. The presentation will include a review of the CALM Study and general childhood anxiety and pilot study outcomes.
